Happy Holidays!

FROM THE GREENACRES TEAM

Barb

Wow, none of us expected a pandemic! Our lives have changed dramatically and so have our shopping habits. We have spent the better part of this year working closely with our teams & vendors to provide you the best options and resources to stay healthy, keep your immune system strong & your pantry full. We realize this has been a tough time & want you all to know how grateful we are that you still shop with us! For me, it's been a big shift, as I live with auto-immune challenges & our oldest daughter is immune-compromised and handicapped so she must stay protected. We have learned to be flexible, make technology our friend, adapt to working from home & further empower our teams.

THE HOFFMANNS

John

I was never a big shopper anyhow, and now we all joke as to what is in the package on the porch today. I do believe, however, that you can't take the hometown grocery store experience & put it into a box. As Barb mentioned, we are so grateful that you all still support us as a locally/regionally owned family business & that our team is here to help you and provide educational input every step of the way as you figure out how to stay healthy & fight off infections.

Shannon

This year has brought about profound change, not only in how we live our lives, but how we run our businesses too. I will start right off & say how grateful we are for our teams at all of our GreenAcres Markets. Watching how they have come together & formed a true foundation of support for each other & our customers in each of our stores has absolutely been amazing. Safety is our priority, and helping you find answers & products is a close second. We have never stopped focusing on being your healthy food experts & supplement gurus – we've just altered how we do it.

Matt

One thing is certain, 2020 will be a year to remember. As you know, I interact with customers every single day and we've seen our customers go through a lot & deal with situations they never thought would happen to them. If I have learned anything this year, besides the incredible importance of doing everything possible to stay healthy, stay fit & stay connected, it is count your blessings, hug your pets, take time to do something special & be optimistic!

NOT ALL COCONUT OILS ARE THE SAME!
UPGRADE YOUR COCONUT OIL WHILE SAVING THE PLANET...

Dr. Bronner's Virgin Coconut Oil is expeller-pressed from fresh, carefully dried coconut kernels. Pioneering the science of healthy farming practices, Dr. Bronner's Regenerative Organic Coconut Oil is perfect for cooking, baking, hair & body! Use for stir-frying, sauces & healthier baking. Moisturizes hair & skin, good for oil pulling and oral care.

Dr. Bronner's is raising the bar. They helped found and qualify for the Regenerative Organic Certification (ROC). But what is Regenerative Organic Certification?

- ROC is a holistic agriculture certification encompassing pasture-based animal welfare, fairness for farmers and workers, and robust requirements for soil health and land management, taking our commitment to organics and fair trade even further!
- Dr. Bronner's sister company in Sri Lanka, where all of their coconuts are grown by small scale local farms within the "coconut triangle", works with farmers trained in organics to implement regenerative organic practices that enrich soil, promote biodiversity and sequester atmospheric carbon—building resilience in the face of a changing climate!
- Dr. Bronner's also supports local communities through projects helping support medical facilities, schools and infrastructure like bridges.
- Dr. Bronner's pays local farmers fair wages, 20 to 25% above market for their farmers.

Dr. Bronner's Coconut Oil is good for people and planet - with an unmatched flavor! Every time you use it you are ensuring soil health and social fairness.

"Based on universal truth: that the seed, the plant, the soil, the animal on the land and the sky above, the person who raises the food and the person who eats it - make up one interlocking system!" Dr. Bronner's is leading the way to a healthy planet for all.

Pick up your Dr. Bronner's coconut oil at GreenAcres. It is perfect for all your holiday recipes and cooking needs. Plus, it is a must-have ingredient for DIY body care recipes. Certified organic, fresh pressed and unrefined.
